Biographical Sketch

Levi Hasbrouck was born in 1791 to Josiah and Sarah Hasbrouck. Josiah and Sarah had four daughters and one son, Levi. Unfortunately, there is no written description of his early years.

Levi inherited the Locust Lawn property from his father in 1821 whereby he continued to manage the family business, which by this time was quite a large operation consisting of a farm, saw mill and several paid laborers. In addition to these business ventures, Levi was a very prolific speculator in real estate, owning a number of properties in the counties of Ulster, Orange and Cayuga, New York. And like his father, he leased much of his land to other farmers and entrepreneurs.

In December 1821 Levi married Hylah Bevier, the 26-year old daughter of Philip Bevier and Ann DeWitt Bevier. Levi and Hylah spent the rest of their lives at Locust Lawn. An account published in 1884 stated that it was Levi who built Locust Lawn. Levi was said to be “a man of great wealth” who owned “many farms” but was nevertheless “of plain, unostentatious demeanor, and quiet manners.”

Levi and Hylah had seven children, five of whom survived to adulthood. Their first daughter, Sarah Maria, was born in November 1823. A second daughter, Ann Bevier, was born in 1827. A son, Josiah, named for his paternal grandfather, was born in 1825 but lived for only four years; Josiah’s death must have been expected for a second son, born in 1828 while his brother was still alive, was also named Josiah. The Hasbrouck’s had two more daughters, Louisa, born in 1831, and Laura Tallmadge, born in 1834. Levi was a member of the Washington National Monument Society, American Tract Society and American Bible Society. The family belonged to the Dutch Reformed Churches at New Paltz and New Hurley.

Levi Hasbrouck died at home on March 7, 1861, aged 70. Levi left the farm to his son Josiah but provided in his will that his wife Hylah should remain at Locust Lawn and she should also have the use of “the old stone house at New Paltz Village”.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Levi Hasbrouck are a section of the larger Locust Lawn Archives, which are in turn a component of the primary museum collection at Locust Grove. Levi's great grand-daughter, Annette Innis Young, inherited both the house at Locust Lawn and the personal possessions and archives of several generations of the Hasbrouck family. In 1958 Miss Young transferred Locust Lawn and its contents to the Huguenot Historical Society to operate as a museum. Her family papers were scattered throughout the house, and between the 1970s and 1990s an attempt was made by staff and volunteers to organize part of the Locust Lawn Archives. In 2010 the Huguenot Historical Society transferred the house, grounds, and collections at Locust Lawn to Locust Grove, reuniting the Hasbrouck family papers for the first time in fifty years. Re-organization of the archives was completed in 2011.

Levi Hasbrouck's papers include correspondence, bills and receipts, legal documents, insurance papers, tax records, and ephemera.

While this collection is remarkable in its own right for its completeness, it also significant for its connection to the art and artifact collections at Locust Lawn, many of which were purchased and used by Levi and his family.

In general, artificial series and arrangement groupings have been created, since no discernable order from the creator was evident. See the arrangement note for more information about arrangement by series.

Series Description

Series 1: Correspondence – 1811-1861

1 Box

Levi Hasbrouck's correspondence spans the years 1811 to 1861 and consists mainly of letters written to and from family members and business acquaintances. This correspondence is filed chronologically and is followed by one folder of undated correspondence to Levi and a folder of empty envelopes.

Series 2: Personal Papers

10 Boxes

This series consists of a variety of material arranged alphabetically by subject. Because these papers were not arranged by their creator, subject categories have been artificially created to improve access.

The first box of Personal Papers consists of a wide range of material. There are account books, diaries, Estate papers, legal papers, and several folders detailing Levi's real estate matters.

The second box of Personal Papers contain receipts which have been broken down into chronological order spanning the years 1816 to 1859 as well as an undated Receipts folder.

Arrangement Note

In general, artificial categories have been created for the Locust Lawn Archives in general and the Levi Hasbrouck Papers in particular. However, some overall trends present in the Young Archives were used as the basis for these categories.

Correspondence

Letters in the Young Family Archives were often grouped chronologically and so this arrangement protocol has been applied to the entire collection. Correspondence is not divided other than by year, and letters continue to be housed in their original envelopes (if they survive).

Personal Papers

All categories in the Personal Papers sub-category have been artificially created.
